Helping women hold loosely to the things of this world, while they cling tightly to Jesus

SPEAKER & BIBLE STUDY TEACHER

We so often tighten our grip on everything but Jesus—and I get it. It's a daily walk of surrender, trust, and intentionality. My heart is to help women hold loosely to the things of this world while clinging tightly to Jesus.

We walked through a five and a half year journey of debilitating headaches for my husband, where we were challenged in our faith, brought to our knees, and saw God's faithfulness protect and provide for my family in ways I could never have imagined. Every message I share has pieces of what God has done in my life and how he has pursued me every step of the way.

I love teaching the Bible, sharing the gospel, and making women laugh so that even if they are going through the hardest time of their lives, they can feel refreshed and seen.

I am a seminary graduate and Bible teacher who has been teaching God's Word to women for more than 20 years. I am the author of a bible study: But God: Seeing God's Faithfulness. I work as a corporate Learning and Development Manager, where I get to teach and equip adults every day. My husband and I have three children and recently became empty nesters.

Three things your women will walk away with:

- A clear and encouraging message with practical takeaways.
- Biblical teaching that teaches truth and points people to Jesus.
- Laughter from the stories and impressions I share.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING...

"I have already begun hearing how meaningful your message was to our women. One of the women on the retreat team said she thinks your message will have a spiritual impact for years to come. Another commented on how well the message of God's Sabbath rest was received. She said she heard many ladies say it was eye-opening and very meaningful in their own circumstances."

"You have such a gift! Thank you for speaking at women's retreat. There were so many points you made that I needed to hear and be reminded of. It was very encouraging."
